CLUB NOTES

Good record against Northampton

Northampton Town, our attractive visitors today, would have rounded off an excellent first season in Division II with a point a match if their worthily promoted side had been able to avoid defeat on their initial League visit to Deepdale. Unfortunately for them, they lost in the match preceding the Cup Final.

Thus North End completed a very good double, having won at the County ground, Northampton in November by 3-0. In fact we have yet to lose against the "Cobblers" in six matches. For while last season's encounters were the first in the League the clubs had already met twice in the F.A. Cup and twice in the League Cup.

The original trial of strength goes back 30 years to Feb. 17, 1934, a season in which North End gained promotion after spending nine years in Division II. A fifth round F.A. Cup-tie, it was a great occasion at Deepdale, a then record crowd of 40,180 attending. Preston delighted their supporters with a 4-0 triumph.

The next meeting was also in the F.A. Cup—on Jan. 11, 1947 at Northampton. North End, still in the First Division, won by 2-1 and went on to reach Round 6. Two seasons ago we again visited Northampton to play a League Cup third round tie and drew 1-1. The replay went in Preston's favour by 2-1.

All this, however, does not detract in the slightest from the "Cobblers' " fine performance last season in higher company. They won six and drew seven of their 21 away matches, scoring 23 goals to 29. The promise then shown has been realised in the present campaign, for Northampton are here as Division leaders.

A 3-0 home win against struggling Ipswich Town on Tuesday made their points total 14 from 10 matches. It put the club slightly ahead of Newcastle United on goal average through the Tynesiders losing 1-2 at Plymouth the following night. The respective ratios were: Northampton (15-8) 1.87, Newcastle (16-9) 1.77.

Norwich City, also with 14 points, stood third, Rotherham having missed a chance of going above all three by their surprising 0-2 mid-week defeat at Portsmouth, where our former player, Cliff Portwood, gave lowly "Pompey" much needed encouragement by scoring the opening goal. Nearby are goal-hungry Bolton.

The Second Division table offers every indication of a very tight contest for promotion, since only two points separate the first and seventh clubs in the reckoning. There is nothing like getting the points early, as these rivals are doing, even though the leaders do not always stay the pace in a marathon race.

At the moment one looks in vain for North End in the top half. Sad to say we are nearer the bottom than the top, largely due to the unprecedented misfortune of never having had the same team in two matches together owing to injuries and illness. There were, however, encouraging signs in our display at Newcastle. The United were too strong in the end, but we played some very good football.

KNOW YOUR TEAM 5. George Ross

It is probably true to say that modest, conscientious George Ross could play anywhere in the team and give a reasonably good account of himself, for the simple reason that he is a natural footballer, born with the faculty. That was early apparent when our Scottish scout spotted him enjoying himself at football way up in the Highlands at his native Inverness as a mere boy. The young Scot developed quickly when put under George Bargh's wing with North End juniors and played a conspicuous part in our F.A. Youth Cup successes of 1960. He was then turning into 17. Just seven months after becoming a professional, with every prospect of making excellent progress, he made his League debut (December 26th 1960) as deputy for injured Willie Cunningham, and he again understudied the captain with credit in our F.A. Cup replay at Accrington on January 14th 1961, North End winning 4-0. Although it was a tough baptism, North End being relegated that season, Ross proved he had the skill, pace, temperament and game-sense needed in his position and he has matured steadily into an accepted and worthy successor of the great Willie. The day before his 21st birthday he gained a Wembley ticket by his share in our Cup semi-Final victory against Swansea Town at Villa Park last March.

OUR VISITORS—Northampton Town

Northampton Town and their more ardent supporters, whom we welcome here today, have not had to wait long for a return visit. It will be remembered that the doughty "Cobblers" provided the opposition in our final League match of last season, and a very good match it was with the Town fighting hard but unsuccessfully to avenge the 3-0 defeat suffered on their own ground some months earlier.

Former members of the Southern League, whose Champions they were in 1908-09, Northampton Town did not come into being until three years before the turn of the century, by which time the greater number of the Football League's present complement of 92 clubs were functioning in various spheres of soccer.

The "Cobblers" owed their inception to the ardour of a local schoolmaster. His efforts contributed to election to the Southern League in 1901 and the Town graced this organisation until 1920, when they became one of the original members of Division III of the League, afterwards participating in the Southern Section.

They were always in it until the formation of Division IV in 1958. Through being in the lower half of Division III, Northampton suffered a decline in status, but earned promotion to former standing after three good seasons, and two years ago made a further advance to present company, finishing 1963-64 in 11th position.

Their manager is Dave Bowen, who recently was persuaded to follow his own preference and stay at Northampton rather than accept the tempting offer of the managership at Sunderland. Through this his popularity no doubt substantially increased, as befits one whose efforts have led to considerable success.

Among his predecessors in this office have been D. Smith, W. Cresswell, Bob Dennison (1949-1954), Jack English, R. Hewison, Syd Puddefoot of West Ham, Blackburn Rovers and England fame, Jack Tresadern and none other than the great Herbert Chapman, whose first post this was before joining Leeds, Huddersfield and Arsenal.

Northampton narrowly missed promotion in 1928 and 1950 as runners-up in Division III (South). In two seasons the club finished third, and once fourth. The lowest position gained was 21st in 1950-51. Yet two years later the club gained their highest total of points, 62 out of 92.

Their best scoring season was 1927-28, with 102 League goals in 42 matches. Their highest League score remains 10-0 v. Walsall in that campaign. Incidentally 10-goal Joe Payne is the Cobblers' trainer. The most goals in any League season stand to the credit of E. Bowen, who scored 34 in 1928-29 season.

A great performance by Northampton was their 3-1 victory against Arsenal in the F.A. Cup third round of 1958. It was achieved by these players: Elvy; Collins, Patterson; Yeoman, Gale, Mills; English, Tebbutt, Hawkings, Leek and Fowler. In a 1934 Cup run they beat Southampton 1-0 and Huddersfield (away) 2-0.

STRONG SOUTHERN ELEMENT

There is a lively southern element in the present team which includes players born at London, Clacton, Rugby, Colchester, Walgrave and Northampton, but like most clubs Northampton have recruited players from many parts.

Doing well in a strong defence is former Blackpool goalkeeper Brian Harvey (32 League appearances last season). Standing 6ft. 1½ and weighing 13st. 5lb., he is one of five big fellows in the defence, left half Joe Kiernan, signed from Sunderland and hailing from Coatbridge, being a good half stone the lightest at 11½ stone.

Theo Foley, an Irishman from Exeter, and Mike Everitt, a Clacton man signed from Arsenal, proved themselves stalwart and dependable full backs last season. Everitt was an ever-present defender. Tall, hefty Derek Leck, former forward, is a local who was signed from Millwall in 1958 and made good as a wing half.

Rugby-born Terry Branston, powerfully built centre half, was an amateur with the third team. He became regular first choice in the senior side three seasons ago and has proved himself a good stopper. Made 41 appearances last term.

Outside right Harry Walden, a Kettering product and recent acquisition from Luton, at once brings to mind the famous midget winger "Fanny" Walden of 40-50 years ago. Inside right Bobby Hunt cost £15,000 from his native Colchester, and a similar fee had to be paid Watford for former Gillingham goal-getter Charlie Livesey, a centre forward of Alex Dawson's build who scored 23 goals in 45games for Watford last season. Town's top scorer last season was F. Large, with 12.

Much promise, not yet fully realised, has been shown by Northampton-born Brian Etheridge (5ft. 6in., 10st. 6lb.), a ball-playing schemer of the Alan Spavin type who came to the fore with England Youth. His partner is left winger Tommy Robson, Newcastle-born England Youth international recruited when a junior Tyneside-way. He scored three goals in 17 appearances last season.

OLD FAVOURITES 5. W. T. ("Tommy") Roberts

"Good old Tommy" was a popular cry that echoed over Deepdale times without number some 40 years ago, and in two later seasons when this happy-go-lucky but ever-dangerous centre forward returned from a two-year sojourn at Burnley to try his luck once more with North End. He was the sunshine boy with his always cheerful grin, win or lose, and his approach to life as mine host of a local tavern within a mile of Deepdale is much the same today in spite of his precarious existence through a long illness. Tommy Roberts, in the early 1920's, was a crack shot who thrived on the subtle scheming of Frank Jefferis, Rowland Woodhouse and Joe McCall, and was no mean performer with his head into the bargain when centres came across from Archie Rawlings and Peter Quinn. He led our Cup Final attack at Stamford Bridge in 1922 and he played for England against Wales and Belgium in 1924, the former occasion at Blackburn being well remembered because a shot by the Handsworth firebrand burst the ball. In eight seasons at Deepdale Tom Roberts scored 157 goals in 253 League appearances, and altogether, with North End, Burnley and Spurs, he collected 211 goals in 306 games, excluding F.A. Cup-ties. He was the Nat Lofthouse of his day when in his prime.
